

Invitation to Sponsorship and Marketing

The 31st Nordic Lipidforum Symposium 2021

*Lipids in Health - contribution of lipids in nutrition and pharmaceuticals:
safe and sustainable processing*

Dear lipid friend and partner!

We hereby invite your company to be a sponsor on the 31st Nordic Lipidforum Symposium 2022.

Sponsorship and marketing in the framework of the Nordic Lipidforum Symposium, helps you to highly promote your business and increase visibility among the participants. We hope this will generate leads and add value to your corporate and brand image. We are expecting up to 120 participants at the Symposium.

All our sponsors and marketing partners will be recommended in the program, on our webpage and with special event signage! Early deciders enjoy longer visibility, so sign up today! We will launch registration form on November 1st, and from this date sponsors will be visible in all channels.

For this event, there are three main levels of sponsorship profiling. In addition, we also offer other sponsorship opportunities. More information on the advantages of the sponsorship and exhibition can be found on the next page. Do not hesitate to contact the organising committee for more information.

The symposium takes place at Quality Hotel Ålesund in Ålesund, Norway, between 12 and 15 June 2022. The main heading for the Symposium is Lipids in Health - contribution of lipids in nutrition and pharmaceuticals: safe and sustainable processing. The scientific program will emphasize topics like health and nutritional aspects of lipids, pharmaceutical aspects and applications, personalised nutrition, lipids in aquaculture and pet nutrition, novel lipids and fatty acids, lipid oxidation and antioxidants, new processing technology, in addition to advanced analysis and food safety. The topics will be presented by posters and oral presentations.

For further information about the Symposium, please visit our website: www.lipidforum.info

Looking forward to seeing you all in Ålesund!
